

Builders' Legacy Society

Habitat for Humanity North Central Massachusetts has made significant strides toward eliminating poverty housing throughout our region during the past 20 years. Through increased awareness, community partnerships, and the support of many volunteers along the way, 19 families have been welcomed home – for them, the cycle of poverty is ended and our communities have grown stronger. Our mission to end poverty housing within the towns we serve will, take more than one lifetime to achieve, however.

Future generations will continue to struggle against hardship and homelessness. Today the Habitat for Humanity North Central Massachusetts Builders' Legacy Society aims to help future generations continue Habitat's important work here in our region.

Our Builders' Legacy Society was founded to recognize the importance of legacy gifts in accomplishing the vision of a world without poverty housing. As a member, you plan to benefit Habitat for Humanity North Central Massachusetts after your lifetime—whether in the form of a bequest, annuity or other planned giving arrangement—and notify our affiliate of your plans. You needn't reveal any financial details of your planning, but if you are comfortable doing so, this information may be helpful in our long-range financial planning.

The society gives recognition to those who share Habitat's vision for the future. If you have already arranged for a bequest or other planned gift, we would like to honor your support. Please notify us and become a member.

As a Habitat for Humanity North Central Massachusetts Builders Legacy Society member, you'll receive a certificate of appreciation and a Builders Legacy Society lapel pin to serve as a reminder to others of your support of our mission. Your gift can be recognized publicly, unless you prefer to give anonymously.
